6.4.2.1.1. Show of Hands, or

6.4.2.1.2. Written Ballot, if a show of hands does not clearly and reasonably reveal an accurate result to the Membership.

6.4.2.1.2.1. Ballots shall be counted by 3 members, who are not electoral candidates, appointed by motion of the Board at the Annual General Meeting. Upon the 3 members reaching consensus regarding the vote count, the results will be provided to the Chair who will announce them to the Meeting.

6.4.2.2. For those not present at the Meeting:

6.4.2.2.1. Proxy, the form of which is to be provided with the Notice to be sent to members 21 days prior to the Meeting.

6.4.2.2.1.1. Proxies in the appropriate form must be received at the Registered and Records Office of the Association no later than 5 business days prior to the Meeting or may be submitted in person by an alternate member, in good standing, at the Meeting. Voting by Proxy does not satisfy the CEC requirement of attendance at an Annual General Meeting.

6.4.3. Motions that require a Special Resolution shall be determined by the approval of at least 75% of the members present and able to vote at the Meeting or voting by Proxy. All other motions shall be determined by the approval of more than 50% of the members present and able to vote at the Meeting or voting by Proxy. A tie-vote shall be deemed a defeated motion. If in relation to the election of a Director or Representative, a tie-vote shall require the recasting of votes by all present at the Meeting until such tie is broken.
